REPORT NO.

1. The freighter UCKA (formerly the RAMB III) which was sunk in the port of Fiume during World War II was salvaged in January 1948. In March 1948 this freighter was towed to Pola at the Scoglio Olivi dockyards for repairs. This vessel is scheduled for use by May 1949 as a cruiser.
2. The 8,300 ton cargo boat LUSSIN was recently under repairs and was to have been ready by the end of December 1948. The LUSSIN is equipped with a radio and a radiogoniometer.
3. The 9,500 ton passenger and cargo boat CORDUM which is one of the most modern ships of the Yugoslav fleet was at the Pola dockyards for repairs around the end of September 1948. The CORDUM, used as a passenger and cargo boat, is equipped with a radio and a radiogoniometer. The 6,000 ton freighter QUARNAR was also at the Pola dockyards for repairs around the end of September 1948. The QUARNAR has a radio and a radiogoniometer.
4. The following persons are in charge of the Scoglio Olivi dockyards:
 - a. Engineer Stipetic is the director of the dockyards.
 - b. Attilio Zacchigna is superintendent of the dockyards.
 - c. Luigi Culiati is in charge of the mechanical section.
 - d. Giuseppe Sellovin is chief of the technical office.
 - e. Roberto Megusar is chief of the production office.
5. Only two of the three drydocks at Scoglio Olivi are in good condition. Drydock No. 3 was to have been in use by November 1948 for the repair of floating docks. A floating dock which was sunk by the Germans during World War II was salvaged in September 1948. This floating dock should be repaired by May 1949. The dockyards and the arsenal are in satisfactory condition. The wharves are still unusable.
6. Two German pocket submarines are presently under repairs at the arsenal. They are located at the entrance of the No. 6 bridge. A submarine which was sunk by the Germans during the war was salvaged in June 1948. It is now located at dock No. 3. Another submarine sunk by the Germans was salvaged in September 1948. At present this submarine is moored along side two pocket submarines.
